

Coordinator Mock Interview Checklist

Quick tips for work-based learning coordinators¹ to ensure successful mock interviews.

Before the Mock Interview

- Identify how many students will be ready for a mock interview and begin scheduling.
- Determine how you will structure the mock interviews.
- Work with teachers to conduct a resume-building workshops with students.
- If a group activity at the school, make sure that space is set up for one-on-one interviews—the right number of tables and chairs and that there are enough employer volunteers to be able to conduct the needed number of interviews in the set period of time.
- If the mock interviews are happening at the place of business, it may be considered a field trip and school district policies regarding transportation, Workers Compensation and liability insurance may apply. Make sure you plan ahead and address all logistics.
- Create and provide appropriate support materials for distribution to volunteers who will be part of the interview.
- Work with the employer to prepare for the interview. Brief the employer on the career pathway students are pursuing and what's going on in the classroom.

During the Mock Interview (if a sequenced group activity)

- If rotating students through a group of employers, make sure you have a schedule and that someone is keeping track of time and coordinating the activity.
- Check in with the employers to see if they need anything, such as water, pen, paper or forms.

After the Mock Interview

- Conduct follow-up activities by reviewing the completed evaluations or assessments with the students.
- Help students update their Employability Skills Profile and think about any next steps they would like to take to further their career goals.
- Coordinate opportunities for student reflection with teachers to help students make the connection between the mock interview, classroom learning and next steps.
- Assess the effectiveness of the mock interview and make recommendations for adjustments in the future.
- Document the experience and provide reports to school leadership and employer partners.
